1. List six drug side effects that increase a person’s risk for accidents and injuries.
   a. ________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________
   d. ________________________________________
   e. ________________________________________
   f. ________________________________________

2. List four common causes of burns.
   a. ________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________
   d. ________________________________________

3. List five causes of suffocation.
   a. ________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________
   d. ________________________________________
   e. ________________________________________

4. Why are older persons at risk for choking?
   ___________________________________________

5. ___________________________________________ are used to relieve severe airway obstruction.

6. ___________________________________________ are used to relieve severe airway obstruction in very obese persons and in pregnant women.

7. ___________________________________________ are used to relieve foreign-body airway obstruction (FBAO) in infants.

8. A hazardous substance is ________________________________________________ .
9. Hazardous substance containers need warning labels. What should you do if a warning label is removed or damaged? _______________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

10. List six safety precautions that are practiced where oxygen is used and stored.
   a. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________
   b. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________
   c. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________
   d. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________
   e. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________
   f. ____________________________________________
      ____________________________________________

11. If evacuation is necessary during a fire, which patients or residents are taken out first?
    ______________________________________________________________________

12. _____________________________ is violent acts directed toward persons at work or while on duty.

13. Where does workplace violence occur?
    ______________________________________________________________________
    ______________________________________________________________________
    ______________________________________________________________________

14. Risk management involves ______________________________________________
    ______________________________________________________________________

15. You must report errors in care, which include ____________________________,
    ____________________________, and ____________________________.