1. The person’s unit is
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________.

2. Staff can reduce noise and increase patient and resident comfort by:
   a. __________________________________________________________
   b. __________________________________________________________
   c. __________________________________________________________
   d. __________________________________________________________

3. Keeping light controls within the person’s reach protects the right to
   ____________________________________________________________.

4. When are bed wheels locked?
   ____________________________________________________________

5. Entrapment within the hospital bed system is a risk. Describe entrapment.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

6. Only ___________________ and ___________________ items are placed on the over-bed table.

7. Where should you place a patient’s or resident’s bedpan when it is not in use?
   ____________________________________________________________

8. The call light must always be ________________________________________.

9. Full visual privacy means ________________________________________.

10. OBRA requires closet space for each resident. The closet must have
    ____________________________________________________________.