MATCHING

Match each term with the correct definition.

a. Leakage of urine
b. Dysuria
c. Nocturia
d. Hematuria
e. Urination
f. Oliguria
g. Polyuria

1. The process of emptying urine from the bladder
2. Painful or difficult urination
3. Abnormally large amounts of urine
4. Urinary incontinence
5. Scant amount of urine
6. Frequent urination at night
7. Blood in the urine

COMPLETION

1. You need to observe urine for ___________________________,
   ___________________________, ___________________________,
   ___________________________, ___________________________, and
   ___________________________.

2. A fracture pan is used by the following persons:
   a. ___________________________
   b. ___________________________
   c. ___________________________
   d. ___________________________
   e. ___________________________
   f. ___________________________
   g. ___________________________

3. Before assisting with a bedpan, what information do you need from the nurse and the care plan?
4. You need to remind men not to place urinals on ____________________________________________________________________.

5. Urinary incontinence is ____________________________________________________________________.

6. Describe overflow incontinence.
   ____________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________

7. List four effects urinary incontinence may have on the person’s quality of life.
   a. ____________________________________________________________________
   b. ____________________________________________________________________
   c. ____________________________________________________________________
   d. ____________________________________________________________________