1. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (OBRA) sets minimum requirements for nursing assistant __________ and _________________.

2. To protect patients and residents from harm, you must understand:
   a. ________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________

3. Who can delegate nursing tasks to the nursing assistant?
   _________________________________________

4. Who is responsible for knowing what the nursing assistant is allowed to do based on the job description and legal limits?
   _________________________________________

5. List five reasons why a nursing assistant may lose his certification, license, or registration.
   a. ________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________
   d. ________________________________________
   e. ________________________________________