1. To be prejudiced or biased means to ________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________.

2. __________________ laws are concerned with relationships between people. Examples involve contracts and nursing practice.

3. A tort is __________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

4. ________________________________________________________________________________ is the unlawful restraint or restriction of a person’s freedom of movement.

5. Which health team member is responsible for informing the person about all aspects of treatment?
_____________________________________________________________________________________

6. Abuse is a __________________________.

7. Leaving a patient or resident lying in urine is __________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

8. Fill in the blanks with the correct term related to the types of elder abuse.
   a. __________________________________________________________________________ involves grabbing, hitting, slapping, kicking, pinching, hair-pulling, and beating.
   b. __________________________________________________________________________ is using oral or written words or statements that speak badly of, sneer at, criticize, or condemn the person; includes unkind gestures.
   c. __________________________________________________________________________ is confining the person to a certain area.
   d. __________________________________________________________________________ means that the older person’s resources are misused by another person for his own benefit.
   e. __________________________________________________________________________ is when the person is deserted by someone who is responsible for his or her care.
9. Fill in the blanks with the correct term related to the types of child abuse.
   a. ________________________________________ is injuring the child on purpose.
   b. ________________________________________ is using, persuading, or forcing a child to engage in sexual conduct.

10. Fill in the blanks with the correct term related to forms of sexual abuse toward children.
    a. ________________________________________ is forced sexual acts with a person against his or her will.
    b. ________________________________________ is sexual activity between family members.
    c. ________________________________________ involves taking pictures or videotaping a child involved in sexual acts or passes.
    d. ________________________________________ is forcing a child to engage in sexual activity for money.

11. Domestic abuse is also called __________________________________________________________________________
    __________________________________________________________________________
    __________________________________________________________________________.

12. If you suspect patient or resident abuse, what should you do?
    __________________________________________________________________________
    __________________________________________________________________________
    __________________________________________________________________________