1. A terminal illness is ____________________________________________________.

2. ________________ and _____________________ about death differ among cultures.

3. Ideas about death change as people grow older. What do persons in the following age groups understand and feel about death?
   a. Children between 2 and 6 years
      ______________________________________________________________________
   b. Older persons
      ______________________________________________________________________

4. Dr. Elisabeth Kübler-Ross described five stages of dying. In this stage of dying, the person asks for more time. The person may make promises to God in exchange for more time.
   ______________________________________________________________________

5. ________________ and _________________ are two important ways to communicate with the dying person. They help meet the dying person’s psychological and social needs.

6. Hospice care focuses on ________________________________.

7. Define these terms:
   a. Advance directive
      ______________________________________________________________________
   b. Living will
      ______________________________________________________________________
   c. “Do Not Resuscitate” order
      ______________________________________________________________________

8. You do not agree with a patient’s resuscitation decision. What should you do?
   ______________________________________________________________________

9. Signs of death include ________________, ________________, and ________________.

10. Which health team member is responsible for determining that death has occurred?
11. Care of the body after death is called ________________________________.

12. List the dying person’s rights under OBRA.
   a. ________________________________________________________________
   b. ________________________________________________________________
   c. ________________________________________________________________
   d. ________________________________________________________________
   e. ________________________________________________________________
   f. ________________________________________________________________
   g. ________________________________________________________________
   h. ________________________________________________________________